TRANSIT INSURANCE

GENERAL INFORMATION

Why Should I Purchase Transit Insurance?

Moving companies typically limit their liability to 10-60 cents per lb. In the event of damage, it is highly unlikely that this limited liability would provide adequate coverage to repair or replace your damaged items.

For example, should your 5 lb. laptop computer get damaged and cost $1,500 to replace, your move would only be liable for the following:
5 lbs x $0.60 = $3.00

Although your moving company will take every precaution to ensure your shipment arrives safely, accidents do happen. Even the most qualified movers encounter occasional claims for loss or damage. Purchasing "all risk coverage" indemnifies you for full replacement at destination.

Why Should I Complete A Valued Inventory?

A detailed valued inventory is highly recommended. Claim settlement will be based upon the declared value specified on the declaration, or the cost of replacement or repair.

Should a valued inventory not be completed, claim settlement will be limited to a maximum of US$1,000 per item or set subject to a per pound valuation.

What is Co-Insurance?

Shipments should be insured at their full value or will be subject to the Co-Insurance Clause. If a shipment is not insured for full value, the insured shall to the extent of such deficit bear their proportion of the loss.

For example, should a $100,000 shipment be insured for only $50,000 and sustain partial damage, the insured would only be entitled to 50% of the amount claimed. If a $1,000 couch was destroyed, the shipper would only receive $500 compensation from Underwriters.

Can I Insure My Vehicle?

Automobiles, motorcycles and boats can be insured and must be specifically declared. Coverage is for actual cash value at destination. Origin and destination condition reports are required (see your forwarder). The value of non-factory installed accessories (stereo systems, DVD players, GPS devices, etc) must be listed separately.

What If My Goods Are Stored At Origin or Destination?

This policy provides 60 days storage coverage at origin and 60 days at destination, warranted that goods are stored in your movers and/or their agent's commercial, enclosed warehouse. Storage coverage can be extended for an additional premium. Please contact WFIS to arrange an extension.
